

Only for you my sun flower

I've done four times the "Pilgrimage of Compostela" in front my family, of you and of all the people that I've known in my life. All in the synthetic telepathy network where my mother touch my penis with her right side brain. And you cannot call me. Have an happy new year.*

All of this. All of this fight. All of this, it's to reclaim your rights my sun flower. Your rights ahead the law. Your rights as a wonderful woman that i've known on December 2012.

And that is our story, sweetie.

When i first meet Saray, this is her name, she is serving in a terrace in front of a bar near Marina street, Barcelona. The same street where one of the "Illuminati" had opened another 40 meters ahead. She was mommy a year earlier.

She was working in the restaurant of his husband and I start to go there after that who I was calling brother go there every day. She was beautiful and i when i stop to work at twelve to eat something always i was going here.

We start to meet, i fall in love with her. She was very unsatisfied with her relationship and a little bit depressed because she takes sedatives [1]. Another strange behavior of this woman was that working at the bar sometimes mans go to see her perhaps for casual reports. It was very strange she doesn't look happy to do this. Sometimes she seems to me super exited.

And now I know why, she was victim of the steam Machine of the neural control network and she was, and nowadays is, continuously masturbated by radio frequency. But seven years ago I didn't know what it was and I couldn't help her. I would have liked to understand what was happening to her, what the sudden changes of character were due to. Because she seemed so worried and nervous many times. Although I immediately knew it was her, the most important woman in my life.

Now I know that two years earlier in 2011 when she was in love with her husband David, a stalker, a criminal, a human hacker, who I call "the butcher" virtual rape her and put her in the synthetic telepathy network and after he breaks her love story with the father of her son, who I love too, he starts to use her to destroy families, to start the vortex of bet about them life and to induct to suicide them.

He is an assassin. But not in person. Induct to suicide, a person which brings another to suicide is an assassin. Nothing more.

But I didn't know it. I was an ignorant. I'm so sorry Saray, I'm crying all the days. I'm so sorry sweetie. I'm so sad to not completely understand you. Sorry.

He create a tool, what I've described as Mantis. A tool to hunt new pries of this hell network, a prostitute to satisfy special services, and a suicide actress. All of this with coercion over her baby. All of this with mental violence. All in the pyramid number four of the "Illuminati" pseudo dictatorship gain money over her body. All. And I know all of them, I'm writing this book to let my readers understand the real danger that has got a big stalker like him a the democratic society. She has been violating her for eleven years and has never even made her a sign because with the steam machine and unreal engine visual cortex injection it makes her lives the most horrible experiences full of blood pain and violent sex. In Barcelona many girls are in the same condition. No one knows how to denounce this monster. And I want to stop it. She is her slave. She needs help.

She is under a suicide bet vortex from about ten years. People bet and gain money over her sexuality. I listen her voice and see her in my dreams with visual cortex injection and brainwave rewrite from July of 2018. I've understand all now, she is enslaved in a house with four man taking cocaine all the day and fucking. Every Thursday she is sold to doing orgies with probably monks [2] dressed as civilians. In the network her body is sold to beasts. Her brain is divided in multi task sessions and her shape is utilized in Barcelona to induct to suicide. She has to satisfy sexual necessity of people who sell drug for this monster.

I really need help. She lost the custody of her baby. I need help.

This woman is wonderful, only has sentiment in her heart and she is victim of sexual harassment from a decade. She doesn't denunciate because of her son. I'll do it for you, sorry for delay. Sorry.

This is the real problem of Barcelona, a chain of death, a chain where the real purpose is sell beautiful women like Saray to special service orgies. Almost catholic church [3] related. No one have the bravery to stop this billionaire market.

They speak about prices from 10000 Eur to 100000 Eur.

She was threatened to go away from our house in Canyelles and join a body building trainer. Now it's three years that is heavily sold. Now she has done horrible thinks and her mind doesn't break her mental chains. Her mind doesn't understand that life goes on and that those criminals have to get jailed all.

But I will do it for you sweetie. And for your son. I love you.
