

(U) Looking Ahead

(TS//SI//REL) GHOSTHUNTER, the only capability of its kind, has captured the interest of many across the Intelligence Community. Menwith Hill Station, in concert with multiple organizations, continues to develop this capability for integration into future baseline system deployments. Achievements obtained through this effort reflect the benefits of cross-access integration, teamwork and inter-agency collaboration to enable tactical operations.