Advanced Analysis Lab (S211)
Run Date: 04/20/2005

(U//FOUO) Register now if you would like to join us for the 16-19 May 2005 Analysis Conference. We will crisscross boundaries and share insights about doing collaborative analysis in a distributed environment.

(U//FOUO) To register for workshop sessions, type "go analysis conference" or go to:

[REDACTED]

(S//SI) Here's a sample of topics being addressed in our breakout sessions:

- A Collaborative Analytic Attack Against the Improvised Explosive Device
- What We Are Learning from NSA-DIA Collaboration Efforts
- Foreign Partnerships -- Pushing the Boundaries of the Cryptologic Enterprise for GWOT
- Unifying Metadata Systems/Databases Across the 5 Eyes Community
- Posturing SIGINT Analysis To Support Information Operations

(U//FOUO) Additional sessions are being added daily, so be sure to check our web site often. Registration for keynote speeches in Friedman Auditorium will soon be available as well. The conference is open to cleared NSA civilian and military affiliates, Second Party colleagues, and contractors.
