

ODIN AND HIS CLAN PERISHED IN THE GOETTERDAEMMERUNG

Editor The Chronicle—Sir: If Ole J. Sneide is a Norwegian I am really ashamed of him and his statement that the present King of Norway is a descendant of Harald Haarfager, King of Norway. The present King of Norway was a prince of the Danish royal family, which has no connection whatsoever with any of the ancient Kings of Norway.

As for Odin being a King at Upsala, Sweden, is another misstatement. Odin was a mythical god sitting on his throne in Valhalla to receive the Norse warriors fallen in battle.

Mr. Sneide had better brush up on his Norwegian history before making such statements in a newspaper.
