

EVERY MAN ARBITER OF HIS NAME'S PRONUNCIATION

Editor The Chronicle—Sir: Answering John Bristol's inquiry as to the correct pronunciation of the name "Kvale." One should pronounce this the way Mr. Kvale pronounces his name. This I do not know, but I do know that his is a Norwegian place name and, as I was born not very far from that place, I know it is pronounced locally exactly the way it is spelled. When pronounced it sounds like the first two syllables of the word "qualify." OLE J. SNEIDE.

Robbins, Nov. 25, 1931.