

Civilization

Editor—At last your editorial department has had guts enough to tell labor unions what they are really doing to the country and, incidentally to themselves. Money-mad, power-mad union leaders are dangerous for the body politic, whether in a gilded palace or in the gutter, if true freedom and honest civilization are to continue. Controlling trade unionism is just as dishonest as controlling corporationism!

OLE J. SNEIDE.

San Francisco.